PROPHECY

We the undersigned hereby prophesy the following events:

It is a bright Autumn day in the year 1979. On the campus at McComb U. football is in the air.

On the outskirts of the great metropolis of McComb a big Mac Pop truck, loaded with Larry Burnett's "Burp Up," the nations newest soft drink sensation, is approaching the Campus of McComb U. With a screech of tires, Don Kepling, the driver, halts his truck in front of the refreshment stand. At this instant Don attempts to back his vehicle into position, but in his first attempt he crashes into a huge yellow cadillac convertible owned by none other than the National Boy Scout chief executive, John Standfield. Mr. Standfield's chauffeur and private secretary, Fannie Sue Roy, leaps out of the limousine to examine the damages; at that instant Charles Cosner, famous girls physical education instructor at the University shouts from a second story window, "One of my expertly trained girls could do better than that."

Meanwhile, back in the office of Dean Rollo Miller, Junior, Zeke Z. McCullough, son of Harold McCullough, president of the student body is organizing homecoming activities. The football game which is to highlight the homecoming is to start in fifteen minutes.

In the showers, Head Coach Chuck Harden is giving last minute instructions to his powerful team, "Remember, boys watch out for the Tuff Turf," and assistant Coach Floyd Rader instructs team Captain "Motionless McDowell," son of the great industrialist, Leon McDowell, to watch out for the shady refs, Mr. Lucas and Mr. Bixel, former coaches at McComb High School.

The fans in the stadium are electrified by the Rock N' Roll version of the "Star Spangled Banner" which was composed by Linda Crouse. The great Town Hall Opera star, Sue Rosenberger, leads the crowd in the singing. The accompaniment is furnished by Barbara Crego on her stereophonic guitar. Incidentally, folks, the guitar was invented by Madge Shafer whose Musical instruments are used the world over by well-known musicians; for example, one of her violins is used by Larry Spitnale, Esquire, accomplished violinist.

The teams now rush out on the field. To everyones great amazement the opposing team is coached, operated and managed by Charles Eberly. Charles learned the art of coaching by following the "Do It Yourself" handbook written by Joyce Campbell. Joyce is the only female football coach in the business.

The starting whistle now blows with great velocity. The official whistle blower is Jan Brickman, who has blown her whistle for the two millionth time since she graduated from high school. That happens to be a world record. McComb is noted for fast playing; the half now ends. Half time entertainment starts with Darlene Latta as she hypnotizes the 83,000 people watching, as she does the triple whooper, super duper, impossible - wait - she just fell as the platform collapsed beneath her. The platform was erected by Charles "fix-it" Feltman of the Myers & Doubt construction company, headed by Kay Myers and Sharon Doubt.

Russell Conrad, who gave up ditch-digging to enter the university, is Drum Major of the band and leads them through their half-time ceremonies.

The whistle starts the last half of the game and in a short time M.C.U. wins a 99-2 victory over the opposition.

As the crowd rises from their seats, Sylvester S. Davis speeds up in his "black beetle" which was his father, Phil Davis Sr's, black limousine in high school. Sylvester, the head cheerleader, definitely has missed the game which may have accounted for M.S.U.'s victory.

As M.S.U.'s players leave the field they are greeted by their friendly union boss Connie "Hoffa" Nagy, as she attempts to sign the boys up in her proposed collegiate players union. The union, claims that the platform of Ron Pendleton, noted candidate for mayor of McComb, on the Republican ticket, is unconstitutional, biased, and just ain't legal. Pendleton and Nagy are both grads of M.S.U.

After the game a dance is to be held in honor of the Queen. A special floor show will be given as an extra by the "Cupid Cuties," chaperoned by Rose Mary Jacobs and consisting of Marlene "Krazy Legs" Mapes and Judy "Shake A Leg" Sheidler. Their routine is acclaimed by John Holladay, a noted News columnist, as the Most Stupendous.

As the evening draws to a close, we find Mr. and Mrs. Ensign, invited guests to the dance, doing the hand jive as the orchestra plays their last tune. By the way, the orchestra is led by "Maestro Marvin Ritter." He leads the only symphonic jazz band.

Being empowered with supernatural ability to foresee the future, we hereby sign this document:

Connie Nagy
Ron Pendleton
Jan Brickman
Phil Davis
Marlene Mapes

SENIOR CLASS WILL

WE, THE CLASS OF 1959, the most illustrious class that ever graduated or ever will graduate from McComb High School, County of Hancock, State of Ohio, being of strong hearts and empty minds, do hereby declare this our last will and testament. It has been ruled that no part of this can be used for incriminating purposes.

To the Faculty-we leave our sincere hope that the Seniors to follow us will always have our cheerful disposition and brilliant minds to continue our fine record.

To the Juniors--we leave, besides Mr. Detamore,the piano in the homeroom so they can keep up our hopping homeroom during noon.

To the Sophomores--we bequeath our respective desks and leave to them a dainty ballad, "The Gum We Left Behind Us," to be made use of and handed down to your beneficiaries.

To the Freshman--we leave the only thing we have left, the right to be first in the lunch line. Sorry kids, but you will have to wait three years for that.

And the individual members of the class leave the following:

I, Jan Brickman, hereby bequeath my ability to stick to one man for a reasonable length of time, at least, to Carol Walsh, because Carol has to settle down sometime.

I, Larry Burnett, hereby bequeath my job at the Zero Locker to any warm-blooded person.

I, Joyce Campbell, hereby bequeath my toreador pants to Helen Spitler, as long as she wears them as effectively as I do.

I, Russell Conrad, hereby bequeath my big red convertible to Ed Barker, if he promises not to play crinkle-fender with the first telephone pole he runs into.

I, Charles Cosner, hereby bequeath my ability to run the hundred yard dash in ten seconds to David Routson, so he will be able to deliver the afternoon paper before nightfall.

I, Barbra Crego, hereby bequeath my ability to know everybody else's business before they do to Janet Apple, providing she uses it for slanderous purposes only.

I, Linda Crouse, hereby bequeath my skill in rock and roll dancing to Ed Spitler, so he can make Bert's Bungalow bounce.

I, Phil Davis, hereby bequeath my membership card in the Corner Whistling Society to Douglas Benjamin so that he can learn how to pucker.

I, Sharon Doubt, hereby bequeath my knack of getting in early at night to Gene Stopfel so that he won't have to be troubled with "Alarm Clock Blues."

I, Charles Eberly, hereby bequeath my ability to study other subjects in Physics class to Jo Fran Ferrell, so that she will have more time to study boys in the Library.

I, Charles Feltman, hereby bequeath my souped up car (?) to anyone stupid enough to want it.

I, Charles Harden, hereby bequeath my big bass voice to Jim Bryan, so that he can warble to his dates too.

I, John Holladay, hereby bequeath my outstanding ability to get to school just as the last bell rings to John Shoop, so the homeroom teacher has a chance to get there first.

I, Rosemary Jacobs, hereby bequeath my ability to change a diaper in nothing flat to Miss Painter. One must always be prepared.

I, Don Kepling, hereby bequeath my shoulder brace to Romaine Breece so that she can have that "West Point Look."

I, Darlene Latta, hereby bequeath my motto, "Variety is the Spice of Life," to Eileen McMaster.

I, Marlene Mapes, hereby bequeath my cheerleading slacks to Harriet Miller. I've worn them for four years and these are guaranteed not to rip, Harriet.

I, Junior Miller, am too tired to will anything.

I, Kay Myers, hereby bequeath my own private bottle of alcohol to Marie Wise so that she may start Chemistry with a lift.

I, Harold McCullough, hereby bequeath my sharp Chevy to Bob Amstutz, because it gets mighty crowded with two on the scooter seat.

I, Leon McDowell, hereby bequeath my ability to go steady with one girl to Jerry Shoemaker, as he seems to be going in the other direction.

I, Connie Nagy, hereby bequeath my ability to argue about anything to Mr. Bixel if he promises to keep the Government class below a low roar.

I, Ron Pendleton, hereby bequeath my artistic flair to Cynthia Caton so that she can take my place as chief blackboard droodler in Mixed Chorus.

I, Floyd Rader, hereby bequeath my superior appreciation for well planned girls to Ed Beam, so that he can study them in Government class, too.

I, Marvin Ritter, hereby bequeath my top notch typing skill to Janice Snavely, if she will take my motto seriously, "If you type, don't snicker; If you snicker, don't type."

I, Fannie Sue Roy, hereby bequeath my tight skirts to Becky Shoop, so that she can have that come-hither look of mine.

I, Sue Rosenberger, hereby bequeath my high, smooth voice to Dan Lora so Dan can sing Indian Love Calls to his many girl friends.

I, Madge Shafer, hereby bequeath my quiet disposition to Diane Booth, so that she won't have to be assigned to a new seat in Mr. Lucas' study hall every day.

, Judy Sheidler, hereby bequeath my job as Secretary-Treasurer of almost every organization in High School to Marietta Morrison so that she can learn to handle figures.

I, Larry Spitnale, hereby bequeath my nickname "Porky" to anyone who beefs a lot.

I, John Stanfield, hereby bequeath my little yellow bug to the Biology class so they can dissect it and put in a new rubber band.

We, Charles Eberly, Linda Crouse, John Stanfield, Kay Myers, and Darlene Latta, affix our names to this document with the hope that in the years to come it will bring back many happy memories of our days in good old McComb High.

CLASS HISTORY

Well seniors, we've made it, and do you remember when we began our high school career in the fall of 1955. Now, it's all over forever, and we found ourselves looking back to the four years with memories we'll always cherish of good ol' M.H.S.

We started our days in high school as bewildered Freshmen with thirty nine students. As our class officers we elected the following: President, Judy Sheidler; Vice President, Larry Spitnale; Secretary-Treasurer, Russell Conrad; Reporter, Charles Eberly; Historian, Marlene Mapes. Our advisor was Mr. White. We selected as our class colors mint green and white, and for our flower, white carnations. Our class motto is "Where there's Victory, There's Harmony." We were glad to have with us Junior Miller, Wanda Osborn, Gerry Hines and Charles Harden as new members of our class.

Our Sophomore year found us with thirty-three "sophies" eager to learn and be on our way. To guide us that year we chose as our Class officers: President, Russell Conrad; Vice President, Charles Cosner; Secretary, Jan Brickman; Treasurer, Judy Sheidler; Reporter, Joyce Campbell; Historian, Marlene Mapes. Mr. Schmunk was our class advisor. We were sorry to lose Nancy Harden, Wanda Osborn, Gerry Hines and Bill Grogg, but were glad to have a new member, Grace Halsey. Phillip Davis moved to Findlay but returned after six weeks. We were all very proud of Marlene Mapes who had the honor of becoming one of the high school cheerleaders. We earned money for our treasury that year by collecting tax stamps. Our biggest moment was when we selected and voted for our class rings.

Our half way mark in high school began with thirty four juniors and brand new, shiny rings. To lead us through the year, we elected as our class officers the following: President, Russell Conrad; Vice President, Charles Cosner; Treasurer, Judy Sheidler; Reporter, Connie Nagy; Historian, Marlene Mapes, and our class advisor, Mrs. Ensign. We were glad to gain Jean Shearer, Fran Cramer, and David Rupert as new members of our class, but during the year we were sorry to lose, Fran Cramer, Grace Halsey, and David Rupert. As our money making projects we sold Christmas Cards and had refreshments at some of the ball games. November, we proudly presented the play "Come Out of The Closet" which was enjoyed by all. We were proud to have Marlene Mapes as one of our high school cheerleaders. In May, we entertained the seniors with the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme was "African Safari" and the best yet, we think.

And before we could catch our breath, we started our last year in high school with thirty one seniors. We were sorry to lose Jean Shearer but were glad to welcome Barbara Crego and Rosemary Conine Jacob. To conduct us through the year, we elected the following officers: President, Russell Conrad; Vice President, Charles Cosner; Secretary, Jan Brickman; Treasurer, Judy Sheidler; Reporter, Barbara Crego; Historian, Sharon Doudt. We were honored to have Mrs. Ensign as our class advisor again this year. October 17th, our mothers served a ham supper before the homecoming game with Van Buren. We were very proud of our beautiful queen, Judy Sheidler, who reigned over the game. We helped our treasury by selling Herald subscriptions and working at the concession stand during the ball games. On May 8, we presented a play "Guess Again" under the able direction of Mrs. Ensign, our class advisor. It was enjoyed by all who attended. The highlight of the year was our trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City which I'm sure everyone enjoyed. We were proud to be the honored guests of the Juniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet on May 16. Then came the long awaited day, May 17, when we graduated from M.H.S. This was the grand finale of our high school days as the Class of 1959.

Kindergarten

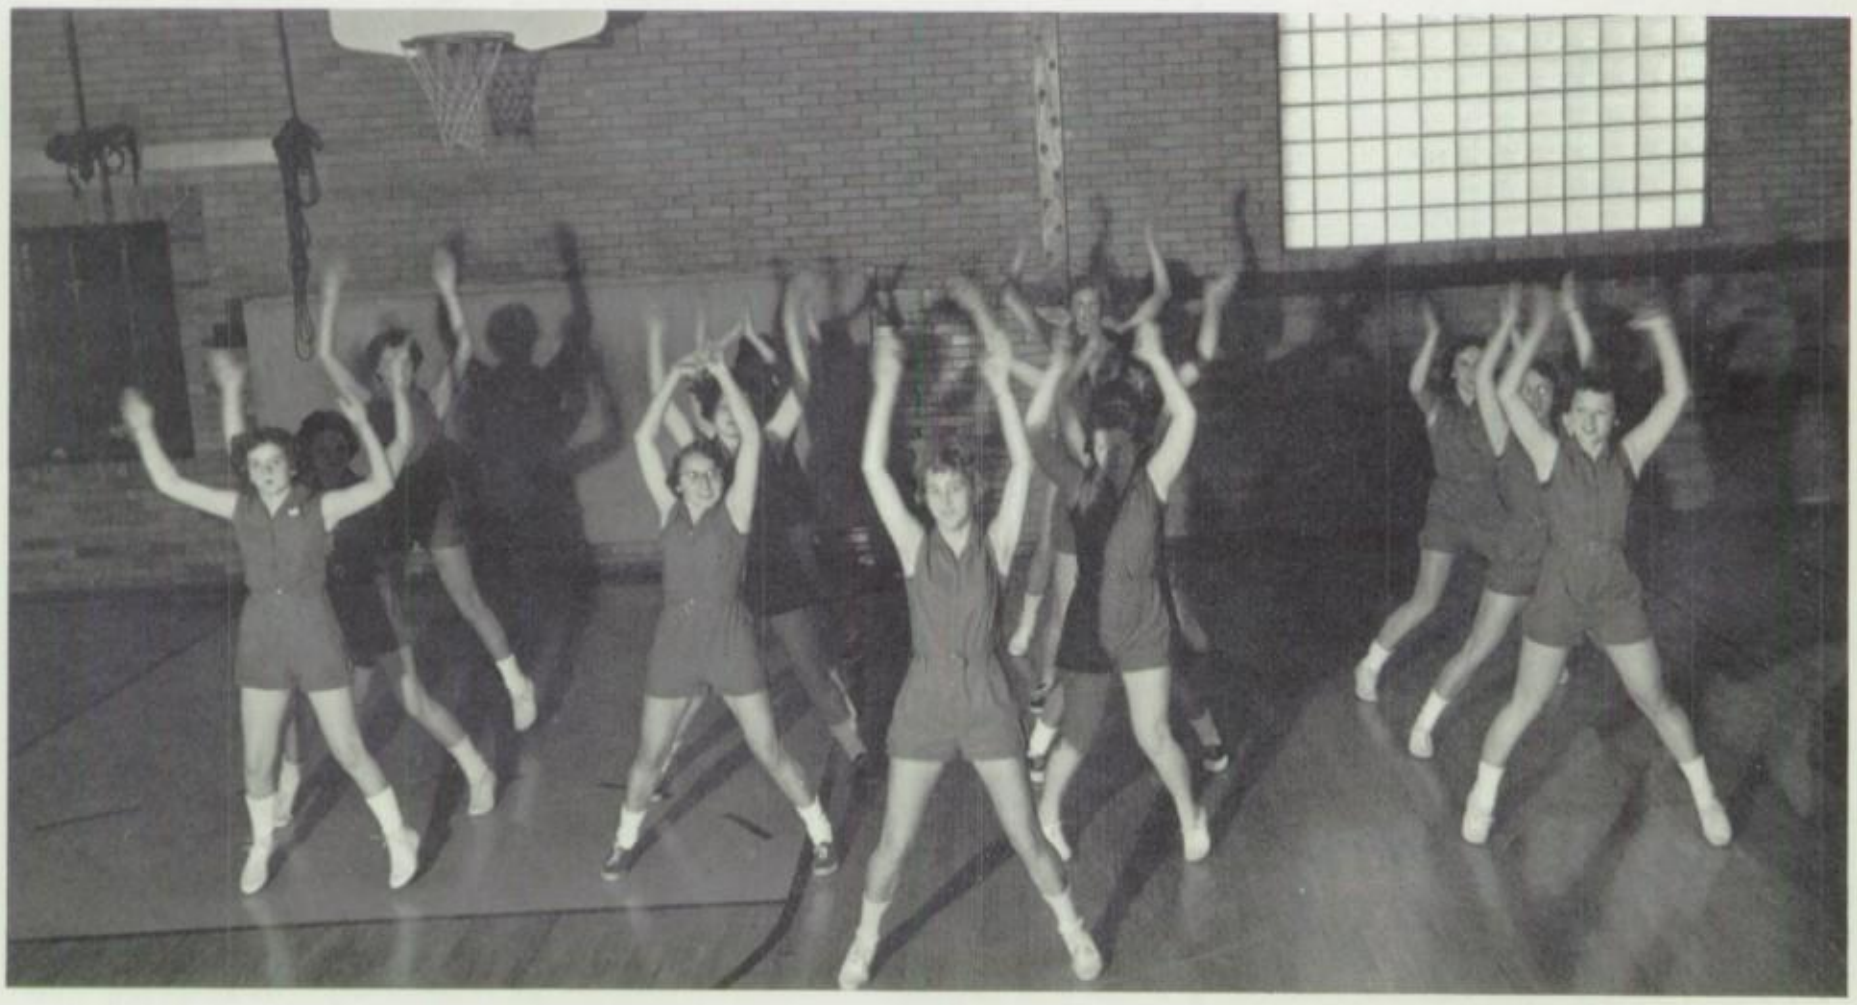
Fourth Grade

McComb School children in grades one thru six are among the most active and intelligent students in Hancock County. Their experiences are varied and their teachers are excellent. In this picture, Mrs. Helen Ewing, one of the Fourth grade teachers is instructing the class in reading.

Mathematics

The McComb Jr. High and High School Math Department offers such courses as: Arithmetic 7 and 8, Business Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Plane Geometry, Solid Geometry, and Trigonometry. In this picture you see Mr. Robert McVey instructing a group of 8th grade students in the finer points of mathematics.

Physical Education



Both boys and girls participate in the physical education program at McComb High School. The classes take part in a variety of games and activities during the school year. Pictured here are Sophomore girls during a calisthenics period. Miss Eleanor Painter teaches this class.

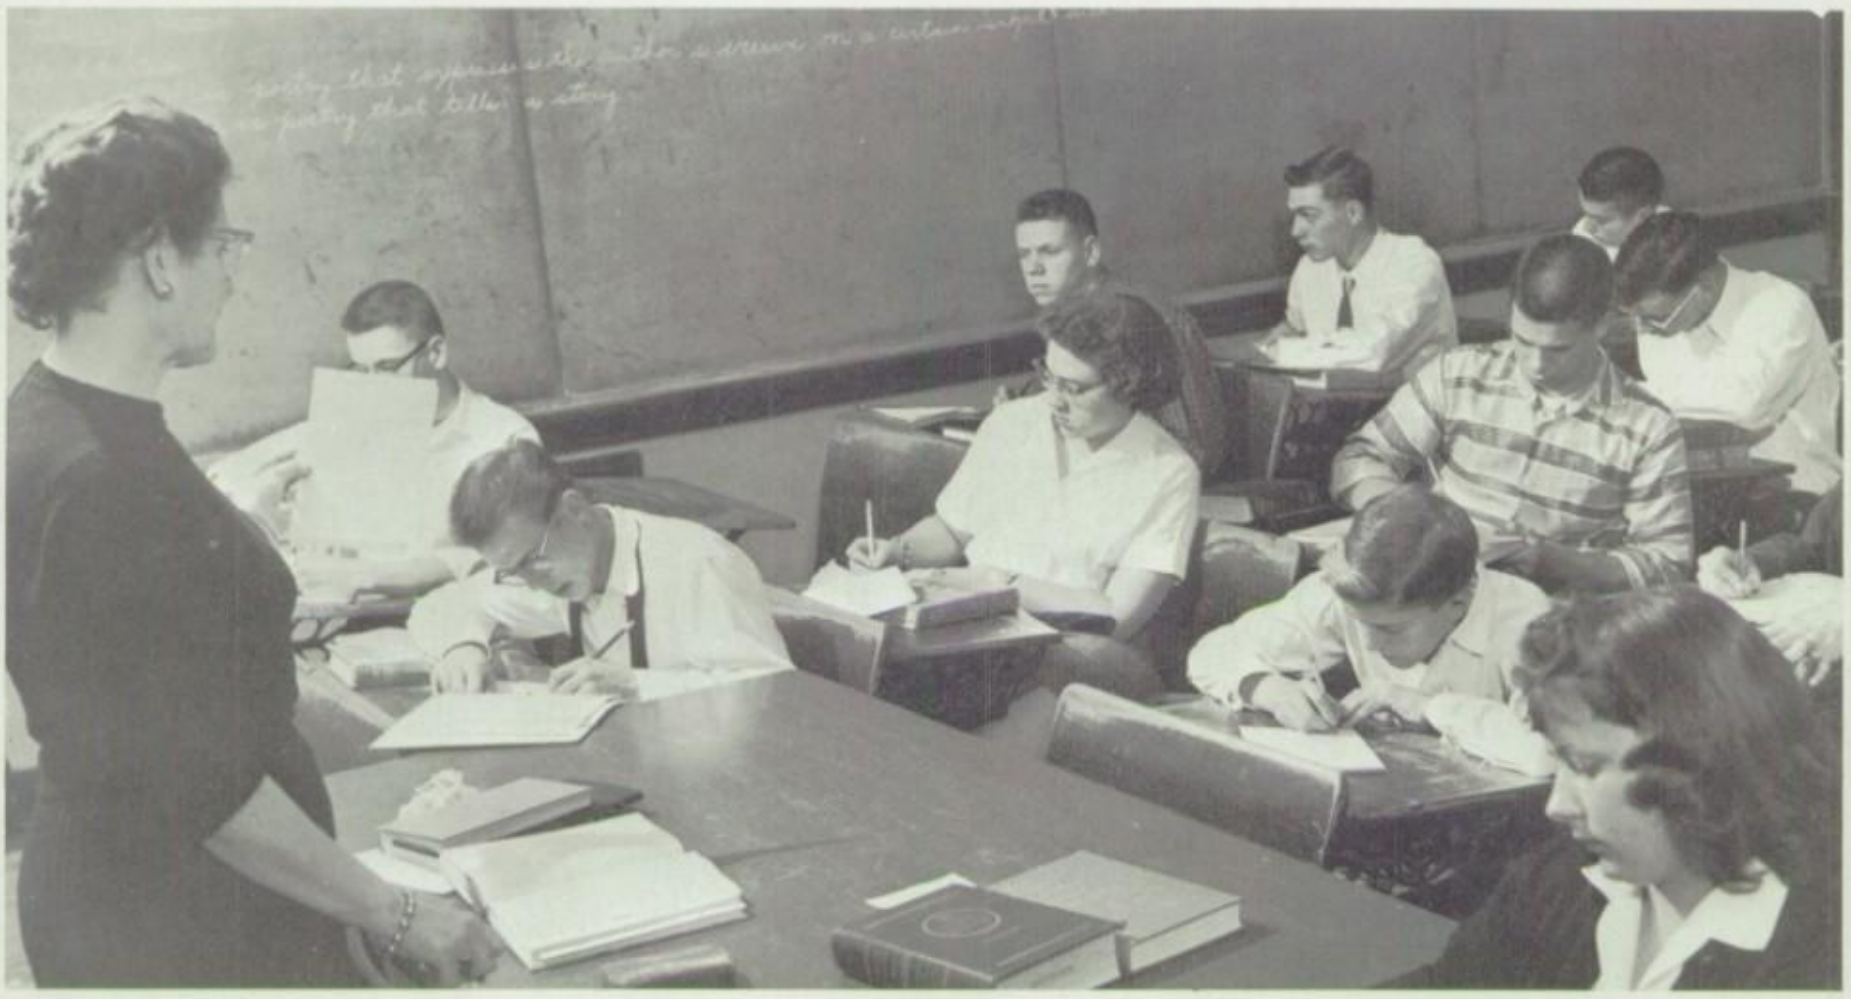
Social Studies

Ohio History, American History, Civics, Geography, Economics, World History, and Senior Social Studies are all a part of the Social Studies department at McComb. In this picture you see Judy Sheidler reporting to the Senior Social Studies class. Mr. Roger Bixel teaches this class.

Commercial

Courses in the commercial department at McComb High School are: Typing, Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Office Practice, Business English, Commercial Law, and Business Arithmetic. In this picture you see Charles Cosner, Marlene Mapes, Fannie Roy, Sue Rosenberger, Judy Sheidler, Linda Crouse, Connie Nagy, and Joyce Campbell taking a timed writing under the watchful eye of their teacher, Mr. Roy Schmunk.

English Department

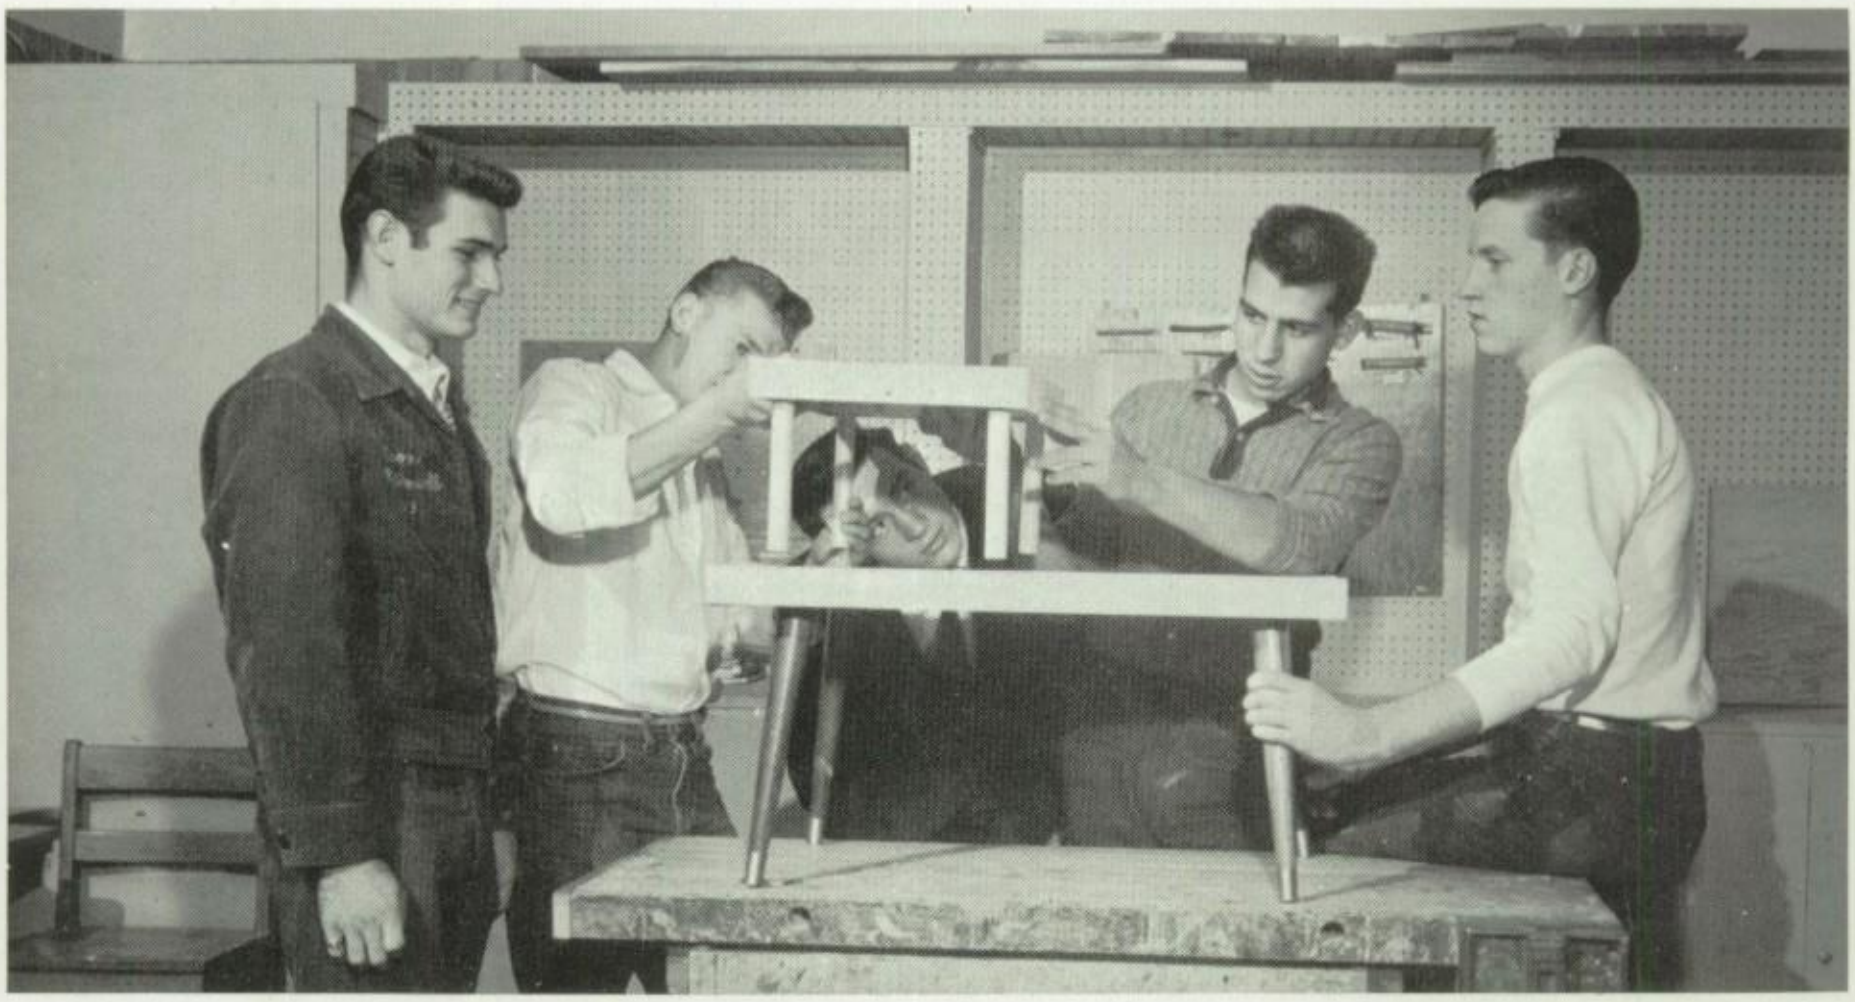


English is taught at all grades in our school. Mr. Smith, Mr. Lucas, and Mrs. Ensign all spend most of their time instructing "willing" students in the proper use of our language. In this picture you see Junior English class deep in the study of American Literature.

Vocational Subjects

Vocational subjects at McComb High School include agriculture and Home Economics. Both departments are well staffed and beautifully equipped. Pictured here are members of the Sophomore Vocational Agriculture class learning how to judge corn under the instruction of Mr. David White.

Industrial Arts



Boys at McComb High School may enroll in the industrial arts classes druing their Junior and Senior years in school. Woodworking, Metal working, mechanical drawing, and electrical work are among the activities they may take part. In this picture you see Leon McDowell, Floyd Rader, Philip Davis, Junior Miller, and Larry Burnette inspecting a project completed by one of the boys. Mr. Stanley Buehrer teaches industrial arts.

Science

McComb High School Science courses include: General Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics. In this picture you see Russell Conrad, Charles Eberly, John Stanfield, Ronnie Pendleton, Charles Cosner, and Charles Harden setting up an experiment in Miss Painter's Physics class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The McComb Student Council, a member of the National Association of Student Councils, is composed of the Presidents, Vice Presidents, and Secretaries of the upper six classes. These persons represent their classes in making various decisions throughout the school year.

The purpose of the Student Council is to give the students a chance to make suggestions on entertainment and scholastic progress in the school. We feel that through this plan, closer co-operation has been promoted between the teachers and students.

At the first meeting, we chose officers to preside during the year as follows: President, Russell Conrad; Vice President, Charles Cosner; Secretary-Treasurer, Jan Brickman.

Various activities are sponsored by the Student Council. Among these were the Homecoming, and the Christmas Dance.

Everyone enjoyed the programs which were sponsored by the Student Council.

Funds for the organization to carry on its projects were raised through a magazine sale carried on by the school.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers Chapter is composed of 53 high school girls. The group throughout the year is striving to fulfill its motto, "Toward New Horizons." Each meeting was based on one of the eight goals of the organization.

Our officers for the year are as follows: President, Jan Brickman; Vice President, Judy Sheidler; Secretary, Joyce Campbell; Treasurer, Connie Nagy; Parliamentarian, Lucretia Caton; Historian, Kay Spoors; Reporter, Jan Montague; Photographers, Roberta Harden, Becky Shoop, Carole Walsh; Song Leaders, Carol Endrek and Arvina Swinehart. Mrs. Inbody and Mrs. Brickman were elected as our chapter mothers. Mrs. Betty L. Spitzer is our advisor.

In the FHA organization there are three degress of achievement that may be obtained. First the Junior degree, whose symbol is the key was earned in 1958 by Sandra Rider, Sharon Tewell, Carole Walsh, Becky Shoop, Marie Wise, Joellen Sheidler, Bonnie Newcomer, Carol Endrek, Roberta Harden, and Arvina Swinehart. The Chapter Degree whose symbol is the scroll was earned by Kay Spoors, Sherry Zeller, and Carolyn Spoors. Jan Brickman attended the state leadership Camp in August.

During the month of April 1958, the girls honored their mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Tea. The main event of this occasion was the style review. It featured fashions created by the girls.

In November 1957, we attended the bi-county meeting. We are proud to have Kay Spoors elected Project Chairman of the county organization.

Sandra Rider, Sharon Doubt, and Connie Brickman attended the FHA Convention as Chapter delegates. Connie sang in the newly organized all State Chorus.

F. F. A.

The McComb Chapter of Future Farmers of America is composed of Thirty-four in school members and four graduate associate members. To date we have seventeen Honorary Members, who are individuals that have shown a special interest in our progress. We have twenty graduates who have been awarded the State Farmer Degree. To be enrolled in this organization you must select, manage, and complete at least one production project each year that you are a member of the Vocational Agriculture class. Our chapter is financed by group participation which provides an income large enough to sponsor all necessary activities. Our goal is to do tomorrow's task quicker and more efficiently and with increased profit. Our motto is "Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, Living to serve."

The following officers were elected by the organizaton to serve this year: President, Harold McCullough; Vice President, Marvin Ritter; Secretary, Don Kepling; Treasurer, Charles Rader; Reporter, Jerry Shoemaker; Sentinel, Leon McDowell; Student Advisor, John Shoop. Our Advisor is Mr. White.

The FFA participates in the County Public Speaking Contest, County Parliamentary Procedure Contest, County Pest Hunt, and many other such activities.

This year was climaxed by the Parent and Son Banquet. The Banquet was held in the spring, at which time the parents were honored by the members. The members were presented awards which they had won during the year.

The FFA was also represented at the county and state judging contest. Each event in which we participate requires extra effort put forth by our members. The ability, tact, and leadership of the members is demonstrated and then evaluated according to FFA Standards.

McComb's opponent for the 1958 Homecoming game was Van Buren. The outcome of this game turned out to be the only disappointment in an otherwise perfect evening. McComb's excellent Marching Band put on a spectacular show in honor of Queen Judy. The entire program was under the direction of the Student Council, Russell Conrad, President. The first activity of the evening was a supper served in honor of McComb Alumni by the Class of 1959.

CLOYD GRUBB, Case and New Idea Farm Implements, Chrysler, Plymouth Dealer.

JUNIOR PLAY

On November 7th, the Junior class under the direction of Miss Painter enjoyed presenting the play "My Little Oscar," a three act comedy written by Paul S. McCoy.

This story centers around the Piper family. Mr. and Mrs. Piper are planning to take a vacation and are going to leave their children, Andy and Vicki in charge of their household.

Unknown to them Oscar, a trained seal, has been put in their basement. It seems that Daisy LaVerne, an old friend of Mrs. Piper's sent Oscar to them.

Between Miss Todd practicing for the style show and trained seal acts in the basement, the Piper residence is in a real dither.

Hal has promised Hean and Betty a dinner party. With no money how can he afford it?

Mrs. Ferguson demands the wooden Indian Mrs. Piper told the pawnshop owner she had, and is near collapse as she finds out her son Dudley posed as the wooden Indian.

When the mayor shows up to give Mr. Piper some insurance business, he finds that Mrs. Ferguson and Daisy LaVerne, long lost sisters, have been united.

The household finally returns to normal after Hal and Andy win Mrs. Todd's favor with their original gowns.

The cast for the play was as follows: Mr. Piper--Roy Wise, Mrs. Piper--Helen Spitler, Andy Piper--Ed Barker, Vicki Piper--Sharron Nigh, Hal Russell--John Shoop, Jean Sterling--Jan Montague, Betty Eastman--Kay Martens, Daisy LaVerne--Janet Apple, Miss Todd--Elaine Troutner, Dudley Ferguson--Douglas Benjamin, Mrs. Ferguson--Marietta Morrison, Mayor Butterworth--Scott Rader.

On April 8, 1959, the Senior Class Play, "Guess Again," was presented.

The story was: Mr. Grimes, the proprietor of the Edgewater Inn, was all worried about the slack business and to add to his worries was Waldo Fitts, who was always a nuisance. When an Englishman came to the Inn, Bill, a college boy out of a job, presumed he was the Lord Wiggleton and had everyone believing that he was. Just then, another Englishman came to the Inn and registers himself as Lord Wiggleton and everyone was confused. After much controversy with a newspaper columnist, a chiseler from Hollywood, the real Lord Wiggleton was revealed and everything was on the smooth side again.

The characters: Janet Moore, a college girl working at Edgewater Inn, Judy Sheilder; Bill Douglas, a college boy in love with Janet, Ronald Pendleton; Henry Grimes, owner and manager of the Inn, Marvin Ritter; Waldo Fitts, porter and general nuisance at the Inn, Charles Eberly; Mrs. O. O. Skinner, a guest at the Inn, Sue Rosenberger; Dora Mae, her rather fresh daughter, Darlene Latta; Olive Ordway, a health faddist, Joyce Campbell; Marcella Jenks, a journalistic girl-wonder, Jan Brickman; Lord Wiggleton, From England, Charles Cosner; Bertie Blodgett, his valet, Don Kepling; S. H. ("Soak-'em-Hard") Pratt, the local banker, Harold McCullough; Renee Lamour, a chiseler from Hollywood, Linda Crouse; Lulu Perkins, a big-league newspaper columnist, Fannie Sue Roy; Sol Messer, a movie magnate, Charles Harden.

Compliments of HALL HARDWARE COMPANY

"Your Lordship, may I present Miss Lulu Perkins."

"Jes' drop that gal while the droppin's good, stranger."

"You rise on your tiptoes. Then you walk."

"Just who is Lord Wiggleton?"

"Now, Wiggy. Don't be cross with little Renee."
